2019 Transfer Pricing and International Tax Survey report: How profound change, transparency and controversy are reshaping a critical business function

The survey covers a wide range of tax and transfer pricing trends and issues with the results organized into three principal areas: transfer pricing, controversy and global tax reform. The results - gathered from the responses of more than 700 senior tax and transfer pricing executives in the Americas, Europe and Asia-Pacific - show that change and transparency, already at high levels, are accelerating exponentially.
