On 19 March 2020, Guatemala's Ministry of Economy announced new COVID-19 measures related to the transport of personnel that work for private companies. Under those measures, the Municipality of Guatemala City will confiscate buses or similar vehicles that transport personnel of private companies and do not: (i) identify the company's name in a visible place on the vehicle; and (ii) have all passengers on board, including the driver, wearing the company's uniform or badge.
