New draft law on authorized period of stay for Ukrainian nationals

Executive summary

On 1 February 2024, the Polish government submitted a new draft law to automatically extend the status of Ukrainian nationals who hold temporary protection in Poland as a result of the armed conflict in Ukraine until 30 June 2024.

Key developments

Temporary protection for impacted Ukrainian nationals was previously scheduled to end on 4 March 2024. It is expected that temporary protection for impacted Ukrainian nationals in Poland may soon be extended further to 4 March 2025 to align with the proposal of the EU Commission to extend temporary protection for these individuals.

Impact on employers

This extension is expected to benefit impacted Ukrainian nationals and the Polish organizations that employ them.
