Indonesia

New visa-free policy for nationals of Colombia and Suriname, Hong Kong residents and Singaporean permanent residents

Executive summary

Effective 29 August 2024, Indonesia introduced a visa-free policy for nationals of Colombia and Suriname, Hong Kong residents and holders of Singaporean permanent residence permits.

Key developments

These individuals can enter Indonesia without a visa for business (e.g., participating in meetings, conventions and exhibitions), family visit or tourism purposes, or transit through the country without a visa. They may remain in Indonesia for up to 30 days per entry and cannot extend their stay. Singaporean nationals may continue to travel to Indonesia without a visa.

Impact on employers

The new policy is expected to benefit employers that send eligible employees to Indonesia for business purposes by reducing the time and expenses associated with admission.

Key steps

EY will continue to monitor these developments. Should you have any questions, we encourage you to contact one of our immigration professionals.
