Best practices for managing tax controversy and increased transparency.

Staying on top of tax controversy is challenging for every business. This challenge is compounded by the increasing interconnectivity among tax administrations. Adopting best practices can help businesses stay on top of controversy matters by helping them to anticipate the next potential tax risk and to design a tax function that is more efficient and responsive to the global tax environment. Chung-Sim Siew Moon, Asia-Pacific Tax Policy & Controversy Leader & Partner, Ernst & Young Solutions LLP, provides details in an article that was first published in the Asia-Pacific Journal of Taxation.
